

Press Release:

Lodore Falls Hotel plays host to Jack Charlton

Football legend Jack Charlton visited the Lodore Falls hotel as guest speaker for the Cumbria County Council Civic Dinner. Cllr Alan Toole, outgoing chair of the Council called upon his long standing football friend to be guest speaker. The 110 strong guest list included the Lord Lieutenant of Cumbria James Cropper; the High Sheriff of Cumbria Graham Lamont; the Bishop and Dean of Carlisle as well as local council dignitaries.

Cllr Toole said "Our evening at the Lodore Falls was a great success, the meal and service were superb and I have received many phone calls and letters of thanks from my guests."

Stephen Johnson, General Manager of the Lodore Falls Hotel organised the event, he said "There was a great atmosphere and the evening ran like clockwork. It is always nice to hear from our guests so we are very pleased to get such great feedback."
